

Tailor-made Displays

Decide on any budget above £500 – perhaps in-between some of the price-points in this brochure, or anywhere beyond that – and we will create a bespoke display just for you, with no design costs.

DIY Events

We can supply non-professional fireworks anytime to suit your budget, and will supply a suggested firing order sheet along with delivery. Do check with your venue that they will allow non-professionals to set off fireworks at their premises.

Personalising Your Display

Flaming hearts and initials

These can be added to any display, where they are not already included in the display cost. They are mounted separately on a frame and are priced as follows:
